

Shotgun Shooting & Safety Merit Class

A Shotgun Safety & Shotgun Shooting merit class (silver merits) will be offered on Friday afternoon at Pow-Wow for any leaders or boys who would like to participate. This class follows official NRA course material and will be taught by NRA certified Range Safety Officers to ensure all necessary safety protocols are followed. Boys will earn both the Shotgun Safety and Shotgun Shooting merits in this class. These are both silver skill merits and may be used to satisfy advancement requirements. Prior completion of other firearms merits is NOT required since all shooting safety material will be covered in this class.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS:

- This class is open to Adventure or Expedition Rangers & adults
- Participants pre-registered at least 2 weeks before the class will receive official NRA course completion certificates. Registration after this date or on site is allowed if space is available, but certificates may not be available until a later date.
- Parental permission is required of all boys (under 18 years of age) – see below
- Class Fee = $30.00 per person (this is in addition to your Pow-Wow registration fees)

CLASS DETAILS:

- Class begins on Friday at 12:30PM in Classroom #3 in the gym and will conclude around 5PM
- Shooting will take place on the shotgun range on site
- All firearms, ammunition, materials, and supplies will be provided. You may bring your own shotgun, but it must be UNLOADED before entering the camp, kept secure in a locked vehicle until class begins, and inspected & approved by the instructors upon arrival at the class.
